23 Jury Trial Set for January 15, 2013

24 I, SHAWN HOGAN, DECLARE AND STATE AS FOLLOWS:

25 1) I am the defendant in the above-captioned matter. All of the statements contained herein are made and based on my personal knowledge and, if called as a witness, I could and would testify competently thereto.

26 2) On June 18, 2007 at approximately 7:00 a.m., I was asleep in my apartment at 8465 Regents Road, Apartment No. 448 in San Diego, California. That apartment is shaped roughly like a "T." At the top of the T is the front door, which is the only entrance/exit to the 1 apartment. The bottom of the T contains the living room, where there is a couch. At one end of 2 the top of the T there is a master bedroom, bathroom, and kitchen areas, and on the other side of 3 the T there is a guest bedroom and my home office.

4 3) That morning, I was wearing shorts and a t-shirt, sleeping on the living room
 5 couch where I had fallen asleep the night before. I lived alone and I was alone in my apartment at 6 the time. I can see the front door from the couch.

7 4) At around 7:00 a.m., I was woken up and startled when several armed agents burst
 8 through my front door. At no time before entry did I hear them knock or announce their 9 presence. The agents (whom I now know are FBI agents) wore what appeared to be bullet-proof 10 vests and immediately ran towards me with their guns drawn and pointed in my direction. They 11 shouted a series of commands at me, including for me to get up, face the wall, place my hands
 12 above my head, to lay on the ground facedown, and to place my hands to the side. I complied 13 with their orders, and the agents then searched me.

14 5) When the FBI agents finished searching me, they told me to sit on the couch and 15 not to move. I complied, and understood that I was not allowed to move about the apartment.
 16 While the other agents searched my apartment, an FBI agent (whom I later learned was Special 17 Agent Melanie Adams) remained with me. Shortly after, two-to-three additional agents entered 18 the apartment. I believed at the time that they had been stationed outside to stop me if I tried to 19 escape.

20 6) After a few minutes, Agent Adams asked me if I knew why the FBI was there. I
 21 said I did not. Agent Adams then handed me a copy of the search warrant, which I read.

22 7) Agent Adams told me that I was not under arrest, and said that she wanted to 23 question me. I understood "not under arrest" to mean that I would not be taken to jail when they 24 were finished conducting the search. Neither Agent Adams—nor any other agent—ever told me
 25 that I was free to go. I don't recall hearing them say that I did not have to speak with them.
 26 Regardless, I work from home and felt I had no other place to go that early in the morning.

1 8) As I sat on the couch in front of Agent Adams, other FBI Agents were searching
 2 my apartment and were in the area containing my home office. After a few more minutes,
 3 another FBI agent (whom I later learned was Agent Todd Walbridge) returned to where I was 4 sitting and joined Agent Adams. At that point, which I estimate as being approximately 7:30
 5 a.m., 30 minutes after agents first entered my apartment, Agent Adams began asking me
 6 questions. The questions lasted for over an hour.

7 9) While the agents questioned me, I did not feel that I was free to leave or to move
 8 about my apartment. At one point, I asked if I could enter my home office, which numerous 9 agents were searching. I was told that I could not.

10 10) Approximately one hour into the agents' questioning, I asked to use the bathroom,
 11 as I felt that I was not free to go without permission. I was allowed to use my bathroom only 12 after Agent Walbridge escorted me there and briefly inspected it before I entered. I was allowed 13 to close the door, but Agent Walbridge remained just outside the entire time. When I finished, he 14 escorted me back to the living room and couch, and Agent Adams' questioning resumed.

15 11) Throughout the interview, numerous FBI agents were coming and going through 16 the apartment. They eventually carried away many of the contents from my office.

17 12) At approximately 10:00 a.m., agents requested access to my car, which was parked 18 outside of my apartment. I gave them the keys, and they then searched my car.

19 13) During questioning, my business computers and servers came up a number of 20 times. I told the agents that the servers were located at an off-site hosting facility, and that I could 21 obtain a copy of one of their hard drives there.

22 14) The agents then asked me to retrieve the hard drive from the off-site hosting
 23 facility. Immediately after the search of my car was complete, the agents directed me to get in 24 my car and drive to the server facility, which is about 25 minutes away by car. The FBI agents 25 followed me to the facility in a separate vehicle. Once there, they directed me to park in the 26 commercial zone or fire lane of a public street, and told an official (whom I believe was a parking 27 meter officer) that we were there on FBI business. Both agents accompanied me into the facility,

28 ///

1 and I pulled the hard drive out from one of my servers and gave it to the agents. It was not until 2 after I presented the agent with the hard drive that I felt free to leave. At that point, the FBI
3 agents allowed me to return to my apartment unaccompanied.

4 I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California and the United 5 States of America that the foregoing is true and correct.

6 Executed this 6th day of September 2012, at San Diego, California.
